Your duty of disclosure

You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer. This means that all the answers you give and statements you make as part of your insurance application, including at renewal and when an amendment to your policy is required, should be honest and accurate. If you deliberately or carelessly misinform the insurers, this could mean that part of or all of a claim may not be paid.

Conflicts of interest/Customers best interests

As insurance brokers we generally act as your agent in advising you, arranging your insurance and assisting you in the event of a claim; we will always act honestly, fairly and professionally ensuring your best interests are our priority. In certain circumstances we may act for and owe duties of care to insurers and/or other parties; for example this might be where an insurer authorises us to settle claims on its behalf. We have systems in place to manage any conflicts of interest. However, where we become aware of any actual or potential conflict of interest with our duty to you which our internal arrangements are not sufficient to manage, we will inform you of the situation, the options available to you and obtain your consent before we proceed.

Insurer security

The insurers we use are regulated and are required to have adequate capital resources. However, we cannot guarantee the solvency of any insurer we place business with. An insolvent insurer may be unable to pay claims or may be unable to pay them in full and you may have to pay a further premium to pay for alternative insurance cover.

How to cancel

Please contact us immediately if you wish to cancel any insurance policy we have arranged for you.

You are entitled to cancel this contract of insurance within 30 days of either the date you receive this contract of insurance or the start of the period of insurance, whichever is the later, and receive a full premium refund.

If you cancel after this date we will refund any premium paid for the remaining period of insurance providing that you have not made a claim during the current period of insurance. For example, if you have been covered for six (6) months, the deduction for the time you have been covered will be half the annual premium. We do not charge a fee for cancellation.

In the event of a claim being paid no return of premium is allowed. Following a claim, if you wish to cancel your policy any outstanding balance on a monthly direct debit plan will become due. We may deduct this amount from any claim settlement made

Remuneration Disclosure (Home)

When you take out a policy with us we charge you a fee of £10.00. This charge is for the provision of our services including all policy documentation, claims handling and renewal invitation. In addition, the insurer pays us commission being a percentage of the annual premium.

Payment of premiums

We require payment of premium when your cover commences. You may pay by debit or credit card or monthly direct debits (monthly direct debits are subject to a charge)

Protecting your money

Prior to your premium being forwarded to the insurer, and for your protection, Assetsure hold your money as an agent of the insurer. This means your policy is treated as being paid for. Assetsure may transfer your money to another intermediary in some cases. However your money will be protected at all times because of the requirements of FCA rules. Assetsure also reserve the right to retain interest earned on this account. By accepting this Terms of Business Agreement, you are giving your consent for us to operate in this way.

Adequacy of insurance values

It is your responsibility to ensure that all sums insured and policy limits are adequate. We cannot accept responsibility for their accuracy. It is strongly recommended that the appropriate enquiries are made to ensure that the sums insured and limits under the policy are suitable.

Money laundering/Proceeds of crime

We are obliged to report to the National Crime Agency any suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing activity and we are prohibited from disclosing any such report.

Termination

You or we may terminate authority to act in connection with your insurance arrangements at any time. Notice of termination must be given in writing and will be without prejudice to the completion of any transactions already commenced. Any business currently in progress will be completed unless we receive instructions to the contrary. Any premiums or fees outstanding will become payable immediately. In circumstances where we feel we cannot continue providing services to you, we will give you a minimum of 7 days' notice.

Block transfers

In respect of some classes of insurance we may operate block insurance arrangements in order to provide competitive terms. This is where we place all insurances of a certain type with one insurer who can provide particularly competitive terms for all our customers. On occasions it will be necessary for us to transfer such blocks from one insurer to another where this is beneficial for our clients. This Terms of Business Agreement constitutes both your acceptance that we may do this and your prior request for us so to do.

How to claim

Please refer to your policy summary or your policy document if you need to notify a claim. You should contact us or the insurer direct as soon as you become aware of any incident which could give rise to a claim. If in doubt about whom you should contact, or if you require our assistance in relation to a claim or potential claim please contact us.
