Fine Art and Collectable items are only covered in the United Kingdom. Pedal Cycles are only covered in the United Kingdom and Europe.

What are my obligations?

- It's important that the information you provide us with is accurate as failure to do so may result in your policy becoming invalidated and a claim not being paid.
- At the start and during the term of the policy, review your cover and policy limits and ensure that they are still right for you. You must tell us if any of the answers you gave to the questions you were asked when you took out your policy change during the insurance period such as:
 - You change address
 - Your occupation changes
 - If you or anyone insured by the policy becomes declared bankrupt or is the subject of any bankruptcy proceedings, county court judgment, individual voluntary arrangement or debt relief order
- You must take all reasonable care and measures to protect any Item Insured and to maintain them in a good state of repair and proper condition. In the event of a claim, you must take reasonable steps to aid in the recovery of any item that has been lost. If you do not, we will not have to pay any claim.

When and how do I pay?

We require you to pay for your policy when cover commences. You can pay your premiums annually by credit or debit card, or monthly by direct debit (direct debits are subject to a credit charge).

When does the cover start and end?

Your policy will start and end on the dates specified as the Period of Insurance in your schedule, unless it is cancelled by you or by us before it ends. Our right to cancel is limited as set out in the policy.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel your policy by calling or writing to us. If you cancel within the first 30 days your premium will be refunded in full, unless you have made a claim. You can cancel at any other time and will not be charged a cancellation fee. Any premium you have paid for the rest of the insurance period will be refunded on a pro-rata basis.
